

True or False — Leader Card

The Fields Church

The Pharisee & the Tax Collector (Luke 18:9–14)

Put the True sign on one wall and the False sign on the opposite wall. Read each statement out; the children run to the side they think is correct. Then reveal the answer and say the quick reason.

Memory verse: "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" — Luke 18:13 (ESV)

TRUE

1. Jesus told this story to people who were proud and thought they were better than everyone else.

He wanted to show them what God really thinks of a proud heart.

TRUE

2. The two men went to the Temple to pray.

One was a Pharisee (a very religious man) and the other was a tax collector.

TRUE

3. The Pharisee's prayer was all about how good he was.

He thanked God that he wasn't a sinner like other people, especially that tax collector.

FALSE

4. The tax collector marched up the front and prayed nice and loud.

He stood far off, kept his head down, and was too sorry to even look up to heaven.

TRUE

5. The tax collector asked God to be merciful because he knew he was a sinner.

His prayer was short and honest: "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!"

FALSE

6. God was more pleased with the proud Pharisee than the humble tax collector.

It was the tax collector who went home right with God, not the Pharisee.

TRUE

7. Jesus said if you make yourself proud and big, you will be brought low.

"But the one who humbles himself will be lifted up."

FALSE

8. We can make ourselves good enough for God just by doing lots of good things.

None of us can earn our way to God. We all need His mercy, and Jesus makes us right with God.

Jesus Connection: The Pharisee trusted his own goodness; the tax collector simply asked for mercy — and he was the one God forgave. None of us can earn our way to God. Jesus lived the perfect life and died and rose for us, so everyone who comes to God humbly, trusting Him, is made right with God.
