

The Good Samaritan

MEMORY VERSE

"Love your neighbour as yourself." — Luke 10:27 (ESV)

THE BIG IDEA

In the Parable of the Good Samaritan, a man is attacked by robbers and left hurt on the road. A priest and then a temple helper both see him and pass by. But a Samaritan — someone the man's people looked down on — stops, cares for his wounds, and pays for him to be looked after. Jesus uses the story to show that our neighbour is anyone who needs our help, and He tells us to go and do the same.

WHAT WE DID TODAY

We heard the story of the Good Samaritan from Luke 10 and watched it come to life on video. We played a lively 4 Corners game to meet the people in the story, talked together about what happened, and each made a little first aid kit craft — bandaging an injured man just like the Good Samaritan did.

JESUS CONNECTION

We are like the man on the road — hurt by sin and unable to rescue ourselves. Others passed by, but Jesus is like the Good Samaritan, only greater. He came to us, had compassion, and paid the full price to heal us by giving His own life on the cross. He loved us when we could do nothing for Him. And because He has rescued us, we can love others too — even those very different from us.

TALK ABOUT IT

Chat together about why the priest and the temple helper might have walked past, and what made the Samaritan different. Who are the neighbours God has placed around us — even people who are hard to love or very different from us? You could ask each other: "Who could you help this week, like the Good Samaritan?"

TRY AT HOME

Read Luke 10:25–37 together this week and thank God for rescuing us through Jesus. Look for one way as a family to be a Good Samaritan — helping someone who is hurt, lonely, or left out — and use up any bandages your child brought home along the way.
