

Jesus told a parable to some people who thought they were very good and looked down on everyone else.

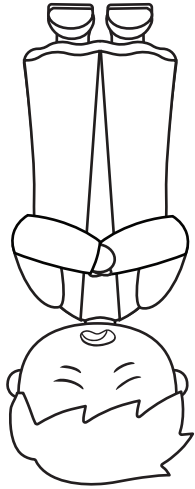

Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector.

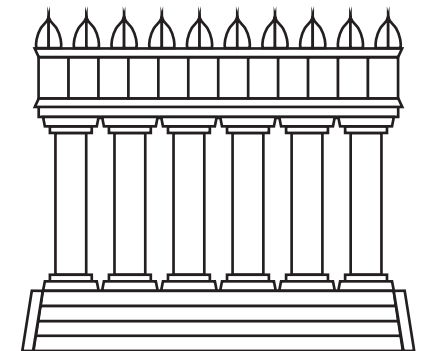

The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer: 'Thank God, I am not a sinner like everyone else! Especially like that tax collector over there!'

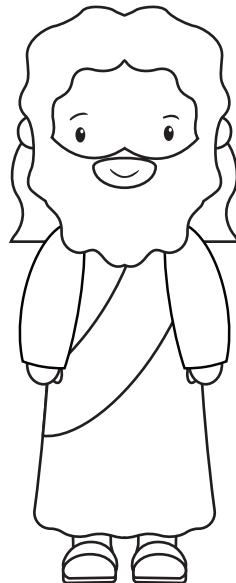

The tax collector stood at a distance and kept his head down. He beat his chest in sadness. And he said, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'

Parable of the Pharisee & the Tax Collector Luke 18:9-14

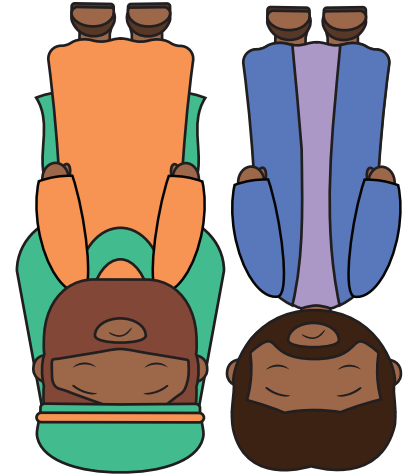

This Book
Belongs to:

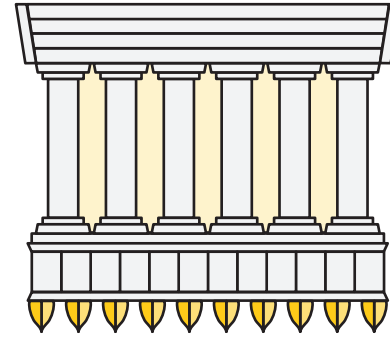

When the tax collector went home, he was forgiven of his sins and made right with God. But the Pharisee was not right with God. If you put yourself above others, you will be put down. But if you humble yourself, you will be honored."
